HOW THE PAY-AS-YOU-THROW (PAYT) WASTE FEE IS CALCULATED

FIXED CHARGE	VARIABLE SERVICE CHARGE	VARIABLE WASTE CHARGE
Calculated according to the floor area of the property or business premises and, for businesses, the type of activity carried out. It covers the cost of shared public services such as street sweeping, litter bin emptying, operation of Recycling Centres and other essential waste services	Calculated according to the number of household members or, for businesses, the floor area of the premises and the type of activity. HOW RESIDUAL WASTE IS MEASURED

At Ecostations

When you dispose of residual waste at an Ecostation, the system automatically records the disposal and links it to your account using the account holder's Tax Code or Electronic Identity Card (CIE).

The waste is weighed, and its weight is converted into litres according to the following conversion rate:

1 kg = 9,09 litri

Door-to-Door Collection

The new residual waste containers are fitted with an identification microchip linked to your account. Each time you put your container out for collection, one container emptying (120 or 40 litres) is automatically recorded and counted for the calculation of the Pay-As-You-Throw (PAYT) waste fee.

WHY CHOOSE THE NEW 120-LITRE CONTAINERS?

Because they have a larger capacity, are easier to move and are safer for collection crews.

At the Recycling Centre

You may also dispose of residual waste in the designated containers using a securely closed bag with a maximum capacity of 40 litres. Each disposal is counted as one 40-litre container emptying for the calculation of the Pay-As-You-Throw (PAYT) waste fee.
